Description

The Museum of Sacred Art of Massa Marittima is the main art gallery of Massa Marittima and is housed in the museum complex, former Convent, of San Pietro all'Orto. The itinerary of the Museum of Sacred Art enhances in particular the historical-artistic period of maximum splendor of Massa Marittima, the one that goes from the '300 to the '400, when the mineral wealth of the Metalliferous Hills allowed to activate many construction sites within its walls and to call to work there artists of great fame whose masterpieces of art are exhibited, from the Cathedral and other city churches. such as: the wooden Crucifix and the original sculptures by Giovanni Pisano, the Crucifix by Pietro Lorenzetti, the Majesty by Ambrogio Lorenzetti painted on wood and many others.
