Short description	The structure, housed in an ancient eighteenth-century monastery, has 27 rooms furnished in poor art style, with walnut wood or matching furniture, embellished with hand-painted details. Each room is also distinguished from the others by the full-length vintage print on the door. The image, enclosed in a golden frame, creates the illusion of physically entering the art, every time you enter the room. Some of them overlook Via Faenza, an ancient medieval street, once home to several monasteries and places of worship, custodians of important works of art. Others have an internal courtyard and enjoy the view of the nineteenth-century Villa Strozzi-Ridolfi (now Palazzo dei Congressi) and the adjoining park. The hotel has 27 rooms, 2 of which are suitable for guests with reduced mobility.

Describe the route from the car park to the entrance and any critical issues	To reach the hotel on foot it is necessary to walk along a stretch of Via Cennini. The latter presents difficulties in accessing the sidewalks, with steps of at least 6 cm even at the lowest points. Once you reach number 11, (in front of the driveway entrance with a difference in height of 6 cm with the road and a stretch of sidewalk about 35 cm long with a slope of 15%), the pavement continues with large wrinkled tiles. For those arriving by car, the hotel has private parking. The flooring is wrinkled tiles and there are no places marked as reserved for customers with limited mobility. However, the parking lot is large and all spaces are close to the hotel entrance (2-15 meters). It is advisable to pass through the driveway entrance even if you do not arrive by car, since the pedestrian entrance door has a 15 cm step that cannot be exceeded with any precaution
